Geneva: what to do while you're there

0. A

Commonly mistaken as the Swiss capital, the attractive city of Geneva sits nestled at the southern tip of Lake Geneva, surrounded by the Alps and with views of Mont Blanc. It offers skiing and snowboarding for fans of the slopes, as well as hiking, culture, and cuisine for summer visitors.

26. ____

Discover CERN (European Council for Nuclear Research), a physics laboratory that holds some of the most fascinating secrets of the universe. Also, don't forget that a visit to Geneva would not be complete without a mountain hike. Mont Salève is popular for a day trip; 20 kilometres from the city centre, it offers views of the lake and beyond into France.

27. ____

Explore the home of the United Nations at the Palais des Nations. Take a tour through the building, where some of the most important negotiations the world has ever seen have taken place. The International Red Cross Museum first opened in 1988 and underwent a significant renovation from 2011 to 2013. Explore the thought-provoking Humanitarian Adventure, which offers the opportunity to enter into the history of humanitarian action.

28. ____

The live music scene in Geneva is varied, from laid-back jam sessions at Le Chat Noir to rock and reggae at funky L'Usine. Join the city for the ultimate fireworks celebration to mark the end of Geneva's summer festival, which takes place during the second weekend of August. This is a grand affair that unites the city.

29. ____

Geneva has a public transport network consisting of trams, buses, boats, and trains. The whole system uses the same ticket. Public transport is free within the city for anyone who has booked a hotel. There are also free transfers to the city from the airport, making travel stress-free.
