

FILL IN THE SENTENCES WITH THE CORRECT PREFIX:

1. Clark failed his maths exam, so he was really appointed.
2. Peter is the mostfriendly person I've ever met.
3. I'm afraid we'veestimated the candidate's qualities.
4. Mark speaks British and Spanish fluently; he is lingual since his mother is from London and his father is from Madrid.
5. The research can't be carried out without everybody'soperation.
6. Carl is an expert innational law.
7. The athlete wasqualified forfair play.
8. The inhabitants arebuilding the houses knocked down by the typhoon.
8. Patrick failed his geography exam in June, so he willsit in September.
9. The conditions they offered me wereacceptable so I didn't ...new my contract.
10. Everybody was wearingformal clothes except for Sarah
11. Paul isconfident, which makes him act ratherresponsibly.
12. Do you usually have lunch with your-workers?
13. I explained Tom what was happening, but he definitelyunderstood my point of view.
14. Sam went to bed so late yesterday that heslept and didn't get to work in time this morning.
15. The two ministers are participating in alateral conference.
16. You shouldn't drink this water unless it's beeninfected before.
17. This is the mostcomfortable sofa I've ever sat on.
18. The village is to celebrate thecentenary of its foundation.
19. I can't understand Pam's letter; her handwriting is definitelylegible.
20. Students prefer-educational schools, but the Minister of Education think boys and girls should go to different schools.

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES BY ADDING THE CORRECT PREFIX FROM THE TABLE.

UN-	DIS-	IN-	IM-	OVER
-----	------	-----	-----	------

1. I keep thinking of our holidays in Jamaica. They were really _____FORGETTABLE.
2. He relieves he isn't going to die. He thinks he is ___MORTAL.
3. I was surprised by my mother's call. It was very ___EXPECTED.
4. Please find another chair. You look ___COMFORTABLE.
5. People don't really like her. She's very ___POPULAR.
6. His parents have punished her due to her ___OBEDIENCE.
7. He was very tired, so he ___DRESSED and went to bed.
8. The army's behaviour during the war was very cruel. It was truly ___HUMAN.
9. John and I don't get on well. We always ___AGREE about everything.
10. I didn't like his Lasagna. It was _____COOKED.
11. She's not a tidy person. The ___ORDER in her room is terrible.
12. I need a psychiatrist. I think I'm going _____SANE