ABOUT ELLIE'S BUSY DAY

Narrator 1: Ellie is thirteen. She lives and studies at a school for young dancers in New York. She's got a very busy day.

Narrator 2: At seven o'clock, Ellie has to get up. She has a quick shower and then she has breakfast with her friends in the dining room.
At a quarter past eight, there are dance classes. Ellie studies ballet, flamenco and modern dance. She loves dancing in the morning. The school hasn't got a uniform, but Ellie wears comfortable sports clothes.
At eleven o'clock, Ellie's got her regular classes. Her favourite subjects are IT and French.
After lunch, she's got more classes.
Then she's got a dance class at four o'clock.
At five o'clock... it's time for jobs! Ellie has to tidy the classroom.
At half past six, Ellie has dinner, and then she has to do one hour of homework in silence. There's free time at eight o'clock! Ellie listens to music, uses the internet or talks to friends.
At half past nine, Ellie has to go to bed, but she can read for half an hour.

Answer:

Yes, she does or No, she doesn't

1 Does she have to get up early?
_____.

2 Does she have to wear a uniform?
_____.

3 Does she have to tidy her classroom?
_____.

4 Does she have to do homework?
_____.

5 Does she have any free time in the evening?
_____.

6 What time does she have to go to bed?
_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS