

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with “Some” or “Any”

1. I have got _____ work to do.
2. Have you got _____ money?
3. We need _____ medicine for our cough.
4. Are there _____ other questions?
5. I haven't got _____ ideas.
6. Can I have _____ apples, please?

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with “much” or “many”

1. I haven't got _____ friends but I don't mind.
2. There is too _____ work for one person.
3. She wants to buy _____ presents.
4. She spends too _____ money.
5. Working in an office, I don't get _____ exercise.

Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks with “a few” or “a little”

1. They pay _____ attention to what I say.
2. I have to buy _____ things at the supermarket.
3. There is very _____ money left.
4. We still have _____ time left.
5. There are _____ people at party.

Exercise 4: Choose the correct answers

1. I haven't work/ haven't worked today.
2. We have buyed/ have bought a new lamp.
3. We have planned / has planned our holiday.
4. Where have you been/ have been you?
5. He has written/ have written five letters.