Part 5 : MATCHING AND INFORMATION TRANSFER
EXERCISE 2

Question 33 to 40

We interviewed six people who want to further their studies in different courses. Read the texts below and answer the questions that follow.

People On Different Course

A - HENRY, 25 years old Henry studies economics at university but has decided take elective papers on finance because finance is an important aspect for any business or organisation. Normally, professionals in this area are constantly in high demand.
B - LINDA, 23 years old Linda works in a fashionable clothes shop and would like to become a manager in the future, but she needs to improve her ability to use computers. There are many choices for her to choose and she has to be careful in her choice in order to help her achieve her dreams.
C - CHRISTINE, 26 years old Christine doesn't have a job at the moment, but she would like to work in a sports centre, perhaps as a coach to a team. She is keen on keeping fit and swims every day. She has won several awards in sports during her tenure in school.
D - TAN SZE CHUAN, 25 years old Tan Sze Chuan wants to learn more about business so that he can run his own shop one day. He is studying languages at university and has a part-time job as an assistant in a sports shop. He has enrolled an online marketing course in a university from Australia. He hopes to sell sport equipment online one day.
E - LISA, 22 years old Lisa is interested in style and fashion, particularly fashion design. Her current job is in a music shop, where she works every evening. She is worried that fashion is a challenging industry but she wants to persevere. Registration with Saito University College could only be the beginning.
F -KAREN, 21 years old Karen wants to become a successful psychologist. She hopes that she could help more people who are distress either from the aspect of emotion or financial problems. However, she needs a loan to complete her studies as her parents could not afford it. A good psychology degree does not come cheap.
