EXERCISE 4

Question 33 to 40

We interviewed six teenagers about their interest in buying a book. Read the texts below and answer the questions that follow.

Teens Who Want To Buy A Book

A - VERONICA, 22 years old

Veronica wants to become a writer herself. She enjoys reading any books that are by famous authors and are well written. She is very keen on books that make her use her imagination. She does not prefer books in digital form as she adores possessing physical books with nice covers.

B - LECTER, 24 years old

Lecter is studying economics and he would like to read an exciting story where money plays an important part. He is currently studying at a local university in the Northern Region of Malaysia. Besides academic books, he likes stuff filled with thrillers and plenty of action.

C - NORMALLA, 25 years old

Normalla is training to become a teacher. She is going to complete her degree in education from Universiti Perguruan Sultan Idris, Tanjung Malim. She hopes to teach small children, especially those illiterate and in rural areas. She wants to understand what it was like to be a child in different countries in the past.

D - SHARMINI, 20 years old

Sharmini wants a book that will help her to understand life for people who have moved to a different country. She would prefer fiction, ideally based on the writer's own experience. English magazines are her favourite too, especially on social and economic issues.

E - RUBBEN, 18 years old

Rubben doesn't know much about science, and would like to read a book that makes it easy to understand. He's particularly interested in the history of science. Give him any simple-to-understand books and he will complete them in no time.

F -CHEE BENG, 21 years old

Chee Beng, is an avid reader, especially on books related to literature. Chinese and English literature are his main strength and he is planning to have a collection of those books in his house. He also plans to study literature in Singapore.
