Exam advice

- 2 The people below all want to watch TV tonight. Read the eight descriptions of TV programmes. Decide which programme would be the most suitable for each person.

- 1 Musa is spending the evening with friends from his sports club. They want to learn something useful and see a programme with plenty of action.

- 2 Sam would like to be a famous rock star one day. He loves listening to music from abroad and hearing new bands that aren't so famous. He isn't keen on competitions.

- 3 Aisha wants to watch a competition, but she's bored with celebrities. She'd prefer to see something where normal people can take part.

- 4 Paveen is looking after her eight-year-old cousin Maya, who is crazy about animals. They both want to watch something funny, and Maya's parents like her to watch educational programmes.

- 5 Danny loves watching series, and he'd like to watch something that hasn't been on television before. He especially enjoys science-fiction shows that have famous actors in them.

Saturday NIGHT TV GUIDE

A Celebrity Challenge

This great quiz show includes celebrity competitors who try to answer questions. Although these famous people come from the world of music or theatre, the questions are on any topic such as art, sport or history. Test yourself as you watch. All you have to do is download the app and if you beat the rest, there are fantastic prizes.

B The Colony

Switch on to the first part of this exciting new thriller. It is set in a galaxy far away where humans who escaped the destruction of Earth are now living. They learn to live with the aliens and deal with dangerous wildlife. It stars Oscar-winning actress, Tania Green. If you are interested in future worlds, this is one to watch.

C Sunny

This brand-new cartoon series follows the adventures of a group of penguins who play ice hockey. This sport takes them around the world to compete, and each week there is an original song performed by the polar bear fans. An amusing series that helps children learn about other cultures in an entertaining way, but older watchers will also enjoy it.

D Reporter Jack

This week Jack travels to the north of the country to meet a group of athletes training for the next World Games. They explain new training techniques for young people who want to succeed in field or track events. You can also see the most exciting moments in recent races.

E Star Time

The most popular weekly talent show on TV is now in its third season. Will a singer, a dancer or a gymnast win this week? From 6 to 60 years old, the performers have three minutes to give their best. They have often travelled from other countries to take part in the show.

F Universe

If you are a technology lover, then don't miss this special programme. We are all slightly scared about how much robots can control our lives, but here you will learn how they work and how we can control them. You can send a message to the experts and get instant on-screen answers.

G Saturday Escape

Imagine yourself skiing down a snowy mountain or parachuting from a plane. Well-known TV journalist Tiger Tom accepts a new challenge each week. This time it's bungee-jumping, and you can experience the jump moment by moment as he has a mini-camera attached to his helmet. Meanwhile his commentary about the experience will keep you laughing even though it's scary.

H Show Night Special

Continuing our events series, this week's programme brings you a live concert held to celebrate World Music Day. Some well-known stars, as well as bands you've never seen before, will come together on stage. Musicians from over 30 countries will perform, and between songs they give tips on how to begin a career in music.

That's entertainment!
