For many people the language of the Internet is English. "World, Wide, Web"-Three English Words, was the name of an article by Michael Specter in the New York Times a few years ago. The article went on to say: "If you want to take full advantage of the Internet, there is only one real way to do it: learn English."

In general, it is not difficult to learn to use Internet services. But although Internet services are rather easy to use, you will have considerable difficulties if you are not familiar with English. In fact, a good knowledge of English is one of the most important aspects that help you use the Internet. Learning to use a new Internet service may take a few hours, a few days or some weeks, but it takes years to learn a language so that you can use it fluently and confidently. Of course, when you know some English, you can learn more just by using it on the Internet. But at least your English should be good enough to understand commonly used words and to know what to do on the Internet.

31. It _____ to learn to use Internet services.

- A. is easy B. is difficult C. takes a few minutes D. takes a very long time

32. According to the article by Michael Specter, you should _____ to take full advantage of the Internet.

- A. learn to type fast B. learn to use the Internet services
C. learn English D. learn the names of some websites

33. Learning to use a language fluently and confidently may take _____.

- A. a few days B. a few hours C. a few weeks D. a few years

34. If you do not know English very well, you will _____ when using the Internet.

- A. be laughed at B. have many difficulties
C. feel more comfortable D. spend a few days

35. Which of the following could be the best title for the passage?

- A. "English and the Internet" B. "Ways to take full advantage of the Internet"
C. "Practising your English on the Internet" D. "How to use Internet services"
