

Christmas Traditions in London

Listen and read. Put the red words under the picture.

London's Christmas lights are a very old tradition.

A tall Christmas tree is decorated in Trafalgar Square every year.

People meet in churches and in the streets to sing Christmas carols.

Winter Wonderland is the annual Christmas fun fair in Hyde Park.

At the fun fair you can meet and talk to Father Christmas.

Listen and read. Number the pictures.

The Twelfth Night is twelve days after Christmas and it's the British Epiphany.

- ① In the morning The Holly Man, covered with leaves, appears on the River Thames in a boat.
- ② Then he meets the Mummers, actors with spectacular costumes.
- ③ They perform the fight between St. George and the dragon.
- ④ At the end there is a piece of cake for everybody. In two pieces there's a pea. If you find the pea you're King or Queen for the day.
