Personify this passage!

The sun rose. There were clouds. Below, there were cars honking. People were walking past the sunflowers on the side of the road. The aroma of the bread in the bakery smelled delicious. There was a breeze.

BREAK IT DOWN!

1. The sun rose. (How did the sun rise? What was it feeling? Rewrite.)

2. There were clouds. (What were the clouds doing?)

3. Below, there were cars honking. (How were cars feeling? How were they honking at each other?)

4. How did the sunflowers behave to show happiness?

5. What did the bread do to attract people's attention?

Rewrite the passage below. See the difference.
