

Plural S Pronunciation

Part 1: First, write the plural word in the correct column. Then take turns reading the story to your partner. Correct each other as necessary.

	/s/	/z/	/ɪz/
In the morning, the alarm clock rings. She wakes up. He stretches. He checks the alarm clock. Someone feeds the cat. He brushes his teeth. She exercises. He exercises. He takes a shower. He shaves. He fixes breakfast.
He makes toast. She drinks coffee. She washes the dishes. He gets dressed. She fixes her hair. She combs her hair. She brushes her hair. She checks her schedule. He puts on his jacket. She picks up her briefcase. She closes the door. She catches the bus. He drives to work.

Part 2: Your teacher will give you a tongue twister. First, practice it. Then read your tongue twister to your classmates. Write down the three other tongue twisters below.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.