

This activity will consist of three parts:

1st: online activities on the next worksheet. The text is called 'A City In Space' and there are activities included.

2nd: read the following instructions on how to write a summary.

Basic instructions

- Use Present Simple
- Be concise.
- Find the principal idea(s)
- Don't put your own opinion or interpretation.
- No examples are required
- Use your own structures

Structure

Introduction:

- Give it a title
- State what type of situation it is (a book, an article, a text, a conversation)

Summary:

- Express only the main idea(s)
- Make sure these ideas are clear and in order

Useful phrases

The article claims

The author suggests...

In the conversation, John and Mark express...

According to Jane, ...

The writer argues...

Useful verbs

Say

Think

Suggest

Analyze

argue observe remind point out conclude discuss define reject criticize insist

show

disagree

3rd: Handwritten part: write a summary of the text 'A City In Space'. Although the text has been divided into three parts so that you could do the activities more easily, it is a whole text. So, your summary should be one single paragraph and following the instructions in the 2nd part. (Not following these instructions will invalidate the activity).