

singing teacher

choose the correct answer

What difficulty for singers does Rosie mention?

- ☐ not hearing how they sound to others
- ☐ not fulfilling childhood expectations
- ☐ not knowing how to breathe properly

According to Rosie, which part of the body should singers warm up first?

- ☐ the spine
- ☐ the mouth
- ☐ the throat

Rosie says that a singer's knees should

- ☐ remain tense.
- ☐ be bent slightly.
- ☐ be kept close together.

To maintain a good voice, Rosie mostly recommends that singers

- ☐ drink water.
- ☐ suck sweets.
- ☐ breathe in steam-

When learning the words of songs, Rosie often

- ☐ imagines they have different meanings.
- ☐ gets a friend to help her practise them.
- ☐ repeats them while doing other things.

Rosie advises people hoping to become singers to

- ☐ consider how strong their ambition is.
- ☐ be careful not to damage their voice.
- ☐ take advantage of opportunities to perform.

Rosie tells us about a friend who

- ☐ avoids singing on recordings.
- ☐ prepares in her car before performing.
- ☐ suffers very badly from nerves on stage.