CGE4 – Unit4 – REP ART & LIFE – TYPES OF HOUSES

Listen and write T/F.

1. A detached house usually has two floors: the first floor and the second floor. Sometimes there's also an attic. ☐
2. British people love gardening, that is why there is often a garden or even two: the front and the back garden. ☐
3. In the UK, semis are the most common type of housing. They're usually in the suburbs of cities. ☐
4. There are lots of bungalows in cities. ☐
5. Terraced houses are homes for rich people or people who earn a lot of money. ☐

CGE4 – Unit 4 – REP ART & LIFE – TYPES OF HOUSES

Listen and choose the correct answer.

Downstairs there is a _____ room, a dining room and a _____. Upstairs there _____ bedrooms and a _____. British people _____ gardening that is why there is often a garden or even two: the _____ garden and the back garden. Gardens are usually small with not many _____ there: one or two _____ , a lawn and a few flowerbeds. When the weather is good, people like spending a little _____ outside in the garden with their _____ and friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

CGE4 – Unit 4 – REP ART & LIFE – TYPES OF HOUSES

Listen and fill in the blanks.

Terraced houses and blocks of _____ are usually in the town centre or near the town _____. _____ houses are a lot of houses joined to one another and they _____ a row. These are homes for _____class people or people _____ do not earn a lot of money. However, in London, flats are quite_____.

A terraced house is call a _____ house in the USA. A block of flat is _____ called a tower block. Flats are not _____ in the UK, only about 15 _____ of people live there.

LIVEWORKSHEETS