

CULTURE VIDEO -THE DISCOVERY OF PENICILIN

2  Watch the video. Choose the correct answer: A, B, C or D.

- 1 Fleming discovered that penicillin fights ____
A viruses that cause infections.
B blood infections.
C bacteria that cause infections.
D mould.
- 2 Fleming discovered the properties of penicillin in ____
A Edinburgh.
B London.
C New York.
D Vienna.
- 3 Fleming found the mould in ____
A his fridge.
B on his lunch plate.
C on a piece of cheese.
D on a petri dish.
- 4 Penicillin was being produced in large enough quantities for medical use by the ____
A 1930s.
B 1940s.
C 1950s.
D 1960s
- 5 According to the video, a solution to antibiotic resistance ____
A will never be found.
B has already been found.
C was found three years ago.
D hasn't been found yet.

3  Watch the video again. Mark the sentences true (T) or false (F) and correct the false ones.

- 1 The discovery of penicillin is one of the most important medical discoveries because it's so cheap to produce. ☐
- 2 Fleming's laboratory hasn't been tidied up and people can visit nowadays. ☐
- 3 Fleming discovered that bacteria were eating the mould. ☐
- 4 Penicillin was in common medical use twenty years after its discovery. ☐
- 5 Antibiotic resistance is caused by the appearance of new bacteria. ☐

4 Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

- 1 The twins both want to be sciences/scientists when they're older.
- 2 They are always asking questions, they're very curious/curiosity.
- 3 He has an amazing able/ability with languages, I don't know how he picks them up so quickly.
- 4 Penicillin has been used for treatment/treating infections since the 1940s.
- 5 I don't think many people understand the seriousness/serious of the problem.
- 6 Science programmes on TV have really gained in popular/popularity in recent years.
- 7 It's incredible how quickly living/live things can adapt to survive in new environments.
- 8 Without the discovery/discover of penicillin, we would be living in a very different world now.