ORDERING FOOD AND DRINKS

Help!

A polite way to ask for a pizza:
I would like a pizza, please.

Regular Pizza £8

Extra ingredients 50p
ham / mushroom / cheese / peas / onion / bacon / olives

A/ Read and listen to this short dialogue.

a: "I would like a regular pizza, please."
b: "Would you like extra ingredients?"
a: "Yes, please. I would like ham and onion."
b: "Here you are. That's £9!"

B/ Match the phrase with its translation.

I would like	Ça fait 9 Livres Sterling
Here you are	Aimeriez-vous.....?/ Aimerais-tu....?
That's £9	Tenez
Would you like....?	J'aimerais

C/ Listen to this short dialogue. Are the sentences True or False?

The man would like a large pizza.	True	False
He would like extra ingredients.	True	False
He would like cheese and bacon.	True	False
He would like mushrooms and bacon.	True	False
The pizza is £19.	True	False

D/ Your turn: Order a smoothie. Add apples and bananas as extra ingredients.

a: I would like a ....., please.

b: "Would you like extra ingredients?"

a: "Yes, please. ....."

b: "Here you are. That's £5!"

E/ Now take the order. Answer the customer (= client)
Ask him/her if he would like extra ingredients.
Tell him/her how much the order is.

a: "I would like a regular smoothie, please."

b: ".....?"

a: "Yes, please. I would like strawberries and pears."

b: "....."