Listen to the audio as many times as you need to, and then fill in the blanks.

A _____ from the United Nations (UN) says the world needs _____ 69 million teachers by the year 2030. The UN agency UNESCO _____ a promise in 2015 that every child in the world is to _____ a primary and secondary education _____ the next 14 years. The agency says a lot of work needs to be done to find the _____ of teachers for schools. The _____ numbers of teachers needed are in sub-Saharan Africa and southern Asia. UNESCO says there needs to be a _____ effort to get the 69 million teachers. At the _____, UNESCO says there are "_____ _____" of teachers around the world. There are _____ 263 million children who do not go to school. Around 25 _____ of these might never get an _____.

The UN report _____ that there are shortages of teachers in _____ with rising _____. This makes it _____ to find enough teachers as there are more and more children being _____. The report says: "Without _____ and sustained _____, the situation will deteriorate in the face of rising _____ for education." UNESCO is also _____ about the _____ of teachers in some countries. In countries like Ghana, Liberia and Sierra Leone, fewer than 60 percent of teachers in primary school have been _____. There are also worries about class _____. The UN says: "In countries like Malawi, it is _____ to find over 100 children in classes....This has been a _____ problem for many years."

LIVEWORKSHEETS