

Name: _____

Class: _____

My Little Folktale

by: _____

Once upon a time, there were three little _____ who lived in a _____ in the middle of the woods. They were very _____ little _____ except when their mother left them alone.

One day their mother went to the _____
to get food for supper. The little _____ stayed behind and got into a bit of trouble. They poured lots of _____ all over the floor!
Then they _____ and hid under the _____.

When their mother returned and opened the door, she was not very _____.

"Oh, no! Look at the mess you made!" she cried.

Name: _____

Class: _____

Page 2, Continued

The three little _____ began to cry. They hung their heads in shame and said, " Oh, we're very _____. We didn't mean to make such a mess."

Then she gave them a _____, a mop, and a broom. She said they must _____ and _____ every inch of the room.

All at once, they _____ with the mop, _____ with the broom, and wiped up every bit of the mess. They even worked through lunch! When they were done, the floor sparkled and _____.

Their mother was so glad, she gave them a kiss and let them go out to _____. The three little _____ had learned their lesson.

Name: _____

Class: _____

Folktale Word Bank

Choose any of these words as possible answers for your story.
Or, think of your own words for your story.

Nouns

barn
bears
brush
chickens
dogs
garden
house
hut
kittens
milk
paint
pigs
shed
sink
spaghetti
table
towel

Verbs

brush
clean
cleaned
gleamed
glowed
mopped
play
ran
scrub
scrubbed
skate
slide
slipped
squeaked
sweep
twinkled

Adjectives

ashamed
cheerful
glad
good
happy
helpful
joyful
pleased
sad
sorry
unhappy
upset

