

COLETTE

- 1. Colette was born into quite a _____ family, but then they became poor and was forced to live a more _____ life.
- 2. Her husband _____ her to write about her childhood and school life.
- 3. Within a short time, her first book, Claudine at School, was being sold around the _____, and people _____ it.
- 4. Her husband _____ her book under his name because he said that at that time people only bought books written by _____.
- 5. Her husband _____ her in a room because she _____ to write another book under his name.
- 6. After four Claudine novels, her husband continued to enjoy the recognition, _____ and _____ that was legitimately hers and she felt _____ by him.
- 7. Colette eventually left her husband because he didn't want to _____ her as a writer.
- 8. Her life was very hard at first: she worked as an _____, but she didn't have enough money for food and she would go _____ and was often sick.
- 9. After meeting Henry de Jouvenel, editor of a newspaper, her luck changed. She devoted herself to _____ and _____.
- 10. She wrote about anything, even _____ scenes, and she also worked as a _____ and a mime, and opened her own chain of _____ salons.
- 11. In the _____ she started to have real success with her writing.
- 12. In 1940 she wrote _____, her most famous work.
- 13. In 1948, she was nominated for the _____ Prize of Literature.
- 14. She became a world-famous female writer in an era where women had to struggle for _____.
- 15. The film Colette, about the life of this extraordinary woman, was _____ in 2018.