

LOS CINCO SENTIDOS

THE SENSE OF

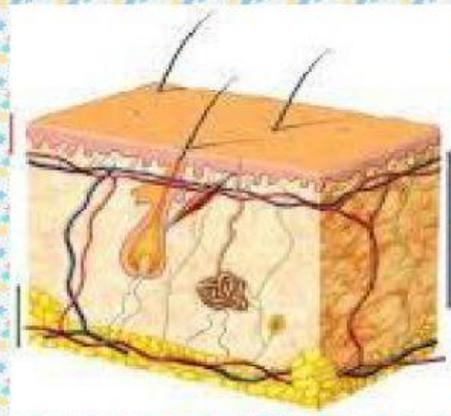

Olfactory receptors are in _____ next to the _____
We also need our sense of smell in order to taste the full flavour of our food.

THE SENSE OF

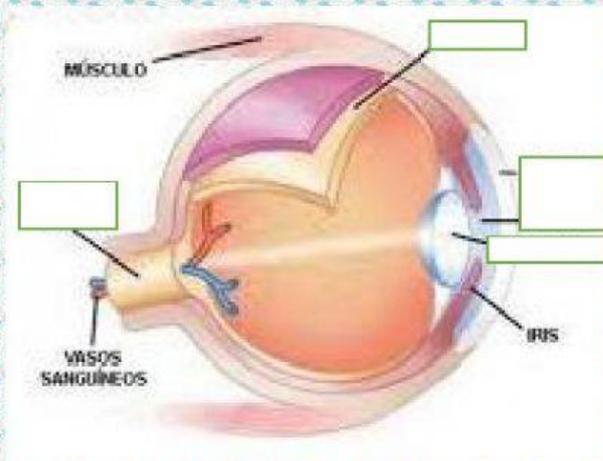

The taste receptors are small bumps on the _____ we call these _____ and they help us recognise the difference between _____ and _____ flavours.

THE SENSE OF

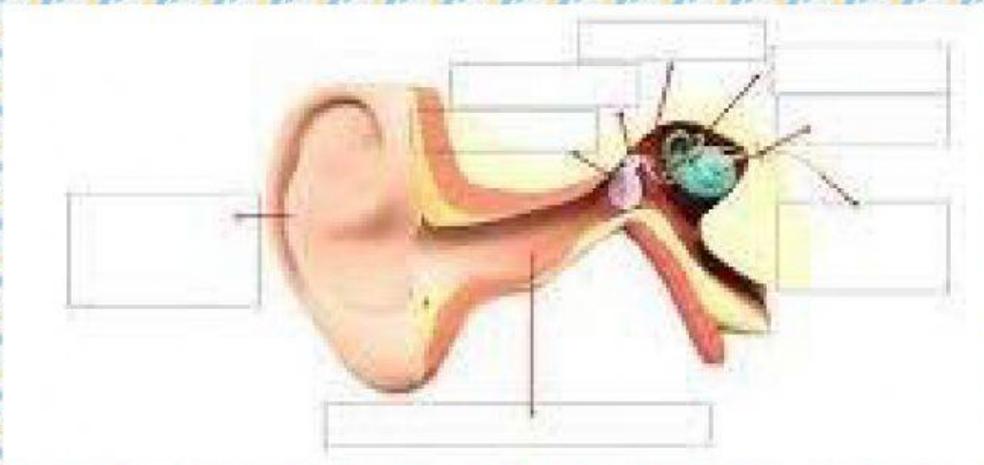

The is the main organ of the sense of touch. Touch and receptors detect and .

THE SENSE OF

The are the organs of sight. Light enters the eyes through the , the , and the . The retina then sends the stimuli received to the brain, through the .

THE SENSE OF

The _____ are the organs of hearing. The _____ detects the sound and this then travels along the _____, the _____ and the _____. The sound reaches the _____ and finally the _____ and this sends the corresponding signals to the brain.