

Grouping Plants

Plants are living things. They can be grouped together based on ways they are similar(same).

a. Look at the plants in the boxes below. Can you think why the plants are grouped together?

Pine tree

maple tree

durian tree

The plants are grouped together because they are _____.

Tomato plant

rose

grass

moss

The plants are grouped together because they are _____.

ixora

sunflower

waterlily

The plants are grouped together because they are _____.

Moss

fern

duckweed

The plants are grouped together because they are _____.

b. Look at the pictures below carefully. Classify the plants into flowering and non-flowering plants.

Rose	Bracken fern	Pine tree	Moss	Tulips

Orchid	Bird's nest fern	Water lily	Daisy	Pine needles

Flowering plants	Non-Flowering plants

That's ALL for today!

