Things and Their Shapes

After arriving at school, Tony gets into his classroom. The first lesson in Tony's class is Mathematics. His Mathematics teacher asks to identify the shapes of things in the class. He must find things in the class with certain shapes like square, circle, rectangle, cube, block, etc. He finds that shape of a blackboard is rectangle, he also knows that a clock is circle, a triangle ruler is triangle, a blackboard eraser is block, and a globe is round. He is very happy to know their shapes.

Based on the text, answer the following questions.
