

Track 31

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you're going to talk about something together for about two minutes. I'm going to describe a situation to you.

Noa: Thank you!

Greta: Thanks!

Examiner: A school would like to celebrate its 50th anniversary with a special event. Here are some events the school could organise. Talk together about the different events the school could organise, and say which would be most popular with students. All right? Now, talk together.

Noa: the photography exhibition. I think it would be a great idea. The school could collect pictures and photos from now and the past. It would be really interesting.

Greta: Students could see how things have changed.

Noa: Yeah! For example, my mum used to wear a school uniform and she says it was awful. They wore striped blue and white shirts with skirts for girls and trousers for boys.

Greta: That's right! I wouldn't like to wear a uniform now. Let's talk about another one. a concert? Everyone loves music and everyone could take part. What do you think?

Noa: I'm not sure about that one. Some people like rock music and other people hate it. And have you thought about the noise?

Greta: you're right. Shall we talk about the student fashion show?

Noa: OK. I think the fashion show is a great idea. Students could put on their favourite clothes and there could be prizes.

Greta: Um ... I'm not very interested in fashion, I'm afraid. We haven't talked about the picnic yet. Do you think it's a good idea?

Noa: Perhaps but if it rains, they won't be able to eat outside.

Greta: Yes, I agree. That leaves the talent show and the disco. Well, you know lots of people love dancing but do you think everyone would enjoy it?

Noa: I don't think so. I discos. How about the talent show then?

Greta: I'm not sure I understand. How would it work?

Noa: You know, each class can perform something different. One class could sing and do a dance, for example.

Greta: Oh But remember some people don't like dancing.

Noa: You're right. Well, what do you think? Shall we choose the photography exhibition?

Greta: Yes, I think that's the best idea. Do you...

Examiner: Thank you.
