Bunny and Crow

Bunny and Crow live in the forest. Bunny has soft white fur and long floppy ears. She lives in a cozy little house under a rock. After lunch, she likes to hop through the bushes and visit her animal friends. Bunny always wondered what the world outside the forest was like.

Crow loves his shiny black feathers. His home is a small nest at the top of a tree. After lunch he likes to fly high above the forest. The crow likes to fly over rivers and towns outside the forest.

One day, Bunny saw Crow sitting in a tree. “Hello Crow!” She called. “Can you tell me what the world is like outside the forest?” So Crow told Bunny all about the rivers and towns outside the forest. Bunny and Crow became good friends.
