

Directions: Choose the best answer for each item.

A: Would you like _____1 (any/some) tea?

B: No, thank you. Have you got _____2 (any/some) pasta and perhaps _____3 (a few, a little) wine?

A: There's _____4 (a bit of/not many) lasagna in the fridge. I'd like _____5 wine (a little / little), too.

B: There's _____6 (not enough/enough) lasagna for us, but unfortunately, there's _____7 (no / plenty of) wine.

A: Please, feed the cat for me. There are _____8 (not much / a lot of) cat food tins in the cupboard.

B: There are _____9 (too many / hardly any) tins here.

Where's the recycling box?

A: I'm sorry. I know _____10 (too many, lots of) rubbish is thrown away without being recycled but I never worry about recycling _____11 (something / anything).

B: _____12 (Hardly any, Too many) people recycle in our country.

A: There are _____13 (not any/not enough) recycling banks and there are _____14 (not much, no) recycling laws in our country.

B: Our main problem is that _____15 (loads of / too many) people do not care about saving energy, reducing rubbish or recycling it. I think there's _____16
(plenty of / hardly any) information about the need to recycle. However, only _____17 (few / little) of my friends care for saving energy, nowadays.

A: I should be more responsible as a citizen but I've just made _____18 (a little/little) progress I promise I'll buy a recycling box and start recycling _____19 (much/a lot of) stuff.

B: I'm glad you agree. Look! There's _____20 (loads of/ Several) paper, _____21 (loads, several) plastic bottles and jars in your bin.