First conditional

Complete the sentences in the first conditional.

IF CLAUSE (CONDITION)
- Present simple

If we study hard,
If he doesn't study,

+

MAIN CLAUSE (RESULT)
- Future simple

we'll pass the exam.
he won't pass his test.

INTERROGATIVE FORM
- Will she pass the exam if she studies hard?
- If I study hard, will I pass the test?

MAIN CLAUSE (RESULT)

She will have good marks
You won't pass the exam

+

IF CLAUSE (CONDITION)

if she studies hard.
if you don't study.

⚠️ A comma follows the if clause.

Jenny _____ (win) a prize if she _____ (spell) all those words correctly.

My dad _____ (get) mad, if my neighbours _____ (not neutralize) this terrible smell.

If he _____ (be) hungry, he _____ (make) a sandwich

If Jack _____ (go) to that seaside resort, he _____ (take) scuba-diving lessons.
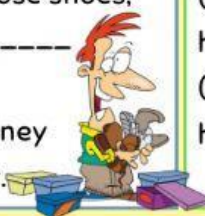

Dad _____ (call) Mum if my little brother _____ (not stop) crying.

If she _____ (not leave) now, she _____ (be) late for dinner.

If he _____ (buy) all those shoes, he _____ (not have) enough money for the rest.

He _____ (not go) to college if he _____ (not pass) his exams.

If we _____ (not do) anything for the environment, there _____ (be) more global warming.

He'_____ (have) his favourite dish if he _____ (go) to the restaurant tonight.

_____ (she/give) some money to a charity if she _____ (win)?

If she _____ (not feel) well, _____ (she/go) to work anyway?

Kayla _____ (have) good marks if she _____ (study) hard.

_____ (she/buy) that second-hand car if it _____ (not cost) much?

_____ (you/lend) him some money if he _____ (ask) you?

He _____ (get) better if he _____ (take) all his medicines.