Once there was a small glade(poiana) in an old forest. Only the little sunlight came through the branches of the tall green trees.

That was Bambi's home, a baby deer. He and his mother were sleeping.

Suddenly he got up. He heard a lovely song of the bird far away.

–Mummy, let's go to the meadow(lunca) he asked.

–No, Bambi, you can't go now, she answered.

–Why can't we go there?

–It's dangerous to go out the glade. We can go out late in the evening or at night.

–Why?

And she told him how the trees aren't always green, how the warm and sunny days disappear, how the frost turns leaves yellow, brown, red, how they fall down on the ground and the trees became bare.
