GRAMMAR PLURAL PRONOUNS: WE, YOU, THEY

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun.

A PLURAL pronoun takes the place of a *PLURAL noun.

*(PLURAL means MORE THAN ONE people, things, animals or plants)

Example:

1. Lufi and I are good friends. WE like to play together.

(Lufi and I)

Notes:

When the nouns/pronouns include 'I' the plural pronoun will always be 'WE'.

2. Nuha and you can come to the party. YOU must be here at 3pm.

(Nuha and you)

Notes:

When the nouns/pronouns include 'YOU' the plural pronoun will always be 'YOU'.

3. Miss Ammara is a teacher and Mr. Attar is a teacher too. THEY are teachers.

(Miss Ammara and Mr. Attar)

Notes:

When the nouns/pronouns DO NOT include 'I' OR 'YOU' the plural pronoun will always be 'THEY'.
