Unit 8: Exercise 2

Read the information. Then complete the table with the task types in the box.

When you do an IELTS Reading task, it is important that you know whether the questions are in the same order as the relevant information in the text.

The questions are always in order except when they are asking you to find which part of the text the information is in.

:: drag to move wordpool ::

- multiple-choice questions
- Yes / No / Not Given
- True / False / Not Given
- matching sentence endings
- matching paragraph headings
- 'Which paragraph contains the information?' tasks
- writing short answers
- matching features (e.g. names) and information
- all gap-fill tasks (note, table and flow-chart completion)

questions in the same order as the text	questions NOT in the same order as the text

LIVEWORKSHEETS