

Unit 8: Exercise 2

Read the information. Then complete the table with the task types in the box.

When you do an IELTS Reading task, it is important that you know whether the questions are in the same order as the relevant information in the text.

The questions are always in order except when they are asking you to find which part of the text the information is in.

:: drag to move wordpool ::

multiple-choice questions

Yes / No / Not Given

True / False / Not Given

matching sentence endings

matching paragraph headings

'Which paragraph contains the information?' tasks

writing short answers

matching features (e.g. names) and information

all gap-fill tasks (note, table and flow-chart completion)

questions in the same order as the text

questions NOT in the same order as the text