

EXERCISE C

Underline the modals in the sentences. Match each sentence with the modal's purpose, and write the letter. Number 1 is an example.

Purpose
a.	necessity
b.	no necessity
c.	prohibition
d.	future
e.	requests

1. d When are you going to mail that letter?
2. _____ Would you take me to the movies?
3. _____ I'm sorry, you must not smoke here.
4. _____ You have to study hard.
5. _____ Today's Saturday, so you don't have to get up.
6. _____ He doesn't hear well, so you must speak loudly.
7. _____ Where will you stay when you're in New York?
8. _____ Do we have to leave already?
9. _____ Could you hold the door for me, please?
10. _____ You must not go faster than 30 m.p.h. on base.
11. _____ Could you help me with this problem?
12. _____ We won't go on vacation this summer.

EXERCISE B

Match the sentences that are similar in meaning. Number 1 is an example.

c 1. Will you help me move this box?	a. I'm not going to the party.
_____ 2. We have to talk to the colonel.	b. We don't have to wear it.
_____ 3. I don't allow eating in my class.	c. Could you help me move it?
_____ 4. I won't go out tonight.	d. You must come on time.
_____ 5. I'm going to leave next week.	e. We must speak to him.
_____ 6. You must not be late.	f. I'll depart next Tuesday.
_____ 7. We can wear our coat or not.	g. I have to score well.
_____ 8. I must get a good grade.	h. Can you take this back, please?
_____ 9. Would you return this for me?	i. You must not bring food in here.