Primary 5 ES Review for the month of January 2022

Section 5. Comprehension. (15m)
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Kurt and Doug had been friends since kindergarten. Now in primary school, they were even better friends. Although they were not in the same class, they would spend time together in the canteen during recess.

During one recess, Kurt and Doug were playing in the fitness corner in school. They were competing to see who could climb further on the monkey bars. Kurt was hanging from the third bar and was about to proceed to the next one when he missed and fell instead. It was quite hard fall. He landed on his left arm with a loud thud. Doug froze in shock. It was only when he heard Kurt groaning from the pain that he was jolted into action. Immediately, he ran to Kurt's side. Kurt's arm was twisted in a weird angle. Doug was frightened.

"Don't move! I'm going to look for a teacher to help!" Doug instructed. A few minutes later, Doug reappeared with Miss Tay by his side. Miss Tay was the teacher-in-charge of the school Red Cross Society so she knew first aid. She looked at Kurt and said that he had probably fractured his arm. She carefully helped him up to the office. There, she called his parents who arrived shortly after and took him to the doctor.

The next day, Kurt arrived in school with his arm in a cast. Just as Miss Tay had suspected, he had fractured his arm. He had to have the cast on for a month. During this period, he was not allowed to lift heavy objects. He could not participate in Physical Education classes and had to sit on a bench and watch the others instead. The active boy was upset to miss out on his favourite lesson but he knew it was only temporary.

During this period, Doug was the one who helped to carry Kurt's school bag. He even helped to buy Kurt's food during recess. Since Kurt could not play any games, the two of them would go to the library to read. Kurt was very glad that he had Doug's company. He was grateful to Doug for being such a good friend during his time of need. When Kurt's arm was finally well, the two of them resumed their usual activities. However, they were more careful. Doug kept reminding Kurt to watch out for his arm, like how an adult would usually nag!

1. According to paragraph 1, what did Kurt and Doug do to maintain their friendship?

_____

_____

2. Explain clearly what caused Kurt to fall.

_____

_____
