Singular and Plural Possessive Nouns

To show possession for a singular noun, an apostrophe is added before the s.

The dog's bed

To show possession for a plural noun, an apostrophe is added after the s.

The dogs' bed

Irregular plurals: add the apostrophe before the s.

The children's bed.

The mice's house.

Write the possessive form of each of the following:

Singular	Plural
(the child of the mother)	(the owner of the cats)
_____	_____
(the teeth of the child)	(the boat of the ladies)
_____	_____
(the noise of the radio)	(the guitars of the teachers)
_____	_____
(the animals of the desert)	(the houses of the people)
_____	_____
(the helper of the builder)	(the work of the students)
_____	_____
(the uniform of the nurse)	(the feathers of the geese)
_____	_____
(the car of the man)	(the idea of the boys)
_____	_____

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

LIVEWORKSHEETS