

- 2  Listen to the audio again and complete the sentences with words from the box.

turbulence winds blustery dusk flight cloud hot

Robert says that ...

- a ... the best time of day for light winds is during the first few hours after dawn and just before _____.
- b ... thermals are not safe for a hot air balloon because they can affect its _____.
- c ... the difference between the _____ air inside the balloon and the cold air
- d ... outside is what makes the balloon fly.
- e ... balloon flight is dependent on air temperature, wind speed, visibility, _____ cover and the chance of rain or storms.
- f ... if the weather forecast states the weather will be gusty, breezy, windy or _____, then it is likely the winds will be too strong.
- g ... _____ can be caused by thermals or sudden higher wind speeds in flight.
- h ... a bumpy landing can be caused by strong _____ affecting the balloon above.