

THE IMPORTANCE OF DREAMS

FILL IN THE GAPS.

Almost every living being _____. Dreams help our brains work _____. In an eight _____ sleep we usually dream for two hours. Our sleep changes from lighter at the beginning to _____ later on. During lighter sleep dreams appear. Some _____ believe that there are some _____ images that everyone shares. For example, a house is an _____ of oneself. A road means a _____ through life. Flying means _____. Falling means losing confidence or feeling out of control. Water is a _____ of our emotions.

The ancient Greeks and Romans used to believe that dreams are _____ from the gods and that they _____ the future.

One famous example is the dream of Abraham Lincoln, the American _____. He dreamt about a dead man _____ in the East Room of the White house. There were soldiers guarding him and a _____ of people crying and standing around him. When he asked about the dead man's name, it _____ to be him. Two weeks later he was _____ by at a theatre in Washington.
