

SCIENCE GRADE 3

1. A mixture is something made up of two or more kinds of substances.

- A. true
- B. false

2. The substances in a mixture retain their own properties and can be separated.

- A. true
- B. false

3. The substances in a mixture react with each other.

- A. true
- B. false

4. Salt in a mixture with water can be separated through

- A. condensation
- B. evaporation
- C. filtration

5. Sand can be separated from water by allowing it to sink to the bottom of a container and then pouring out the water.

- A. true
- B. false