

What do you like for breakfast?

We asked four children about their favourite breakfast foods.

Hi, I'm Abd Allah from Egypt. I sometimes eat bread with jam or cheese. But usually I eat fuul and bread for breakfast. Fuul is mashed beans. It's great with olive oil and flat bread. I sometimes have an egg with it, too.

My name's Pete. I'm from Scotland. For breakfast, I usually have a bowl of cereal with milk, and then toast with butter. We have lots of different cereals at home, but my favourite is cornflakes. I don't have a very big breakfast because I eat lunch early at school.

Hi, everyone. I'm Huong and I come from Vietnam. For breakfast, I usually have noodle soup. My grandma makes it every morning. Sometimes I have xoi. These are balls of rice with beans. They are wrapped in coconut leaves and are really yummy.

Hi. My name is Mariana and I'm from Mexico. My favourite breakfast is huevos rancheros: eggs cooked in tomato and chilli sauce. Under the eggs is a tortilla, which is a corn pancake. I always eat a big breakfast because we don't have lunch at school.

Read and write M (Mexico), S (Scotland), V (Vietnam) and E (Egypt)

- 1 People have soup for breakfast.....
- 2 Breakfast here is a pancake with eggs.....
- 3 People eat cereal with milk.
- 4 People eat mashed beans and bread.....
- 5 The children have very big breakfast....
- 6 Some people have rice balls.....

Find words in the text

Countries:

Drinks:

Foods: