

Phrases with verbs

Use the correct form of these phrases:

start university
leave my job
do an exam
move to another country
move house
look for a house

have coffee with friends
have a party
watch the news
watch basketball on TV
go shopping
go running

go swimming
go to the gym
go to a party
go to the cinema
get married

1. I'm going to _____ next month. I bought my wedding dress.
2. John _____ last weekend. There was a DJ, a lot of food, but there weren't a lot of people.
3. - Did you ___ to John's _____ ?
- No, I didn't. I don't like parties.
4. She's going to _____ on Monday morning, because the river is near her home.
5. Fred and Andy _____ yesterday afternoon, because they didn't like their boss. They're going to look for a new one.
6. I love having _____ with _____. Coffee is my friend. I love having coffee with coffee.
7. Last night I saw an accident on my street, so I _____ on TV to find out what happened.
8. Sally and James are going to _____ in September. They hate the weather in the UK, so they're going to live in Egypt.
9. My daughter _____ a month ago. She has a lot of homework and has to study hard.
10. Lithuania is playing in the Olympics, we're going to _____. They are going to play against the USA.
11. I didn't _____ yesterday to watch a new "Spider Man" film, because it was closed due to Covid-19 pandemic.
12. - Is your sister going to _____? I saw her packing all her things and bringing them to the truck.
- No, she's just going to buy new furniture - a new sofa, a coffee table and some chairs.
13. My girlfriend has a New year's resolution - she's going to _____ three times a week to get fit and lose weight.
14. A week ago I _____ with my mother to "Akropolis", because she needed a new dress and new shoes.
15. Ben wants to move to another city and his flat is very small, so he's going to _____ in London.
16. My husband is going to _____ in biology, because he wants to become a doctor.
17. Simone's dream is to attend a 68 km marathon, so she's going to _____ 20 km a day to practise.