Sylvia Venner is a 12-year-old dancer. She's from Australia but lives in Whitstable, England, with her parents, her older sister Gloria and younger brother Charlie. She dances in competitions. Her dream is to dance on stage in a London theatre. When Sylvia was four, her mother started dancing with her for fun. A year later, Sylvia joined a dance school in the town where she lives. She works hard at dancing. "I practise for two hours every day after school and for three hours every Saturday morning. My feet are still growing. It's important to make sure you have the right size shoes when you dance in competitions so last month I went to London to buy some new ones."
