

VERB + OBJECT + PREPOSITION

Read and learn:

Accuse someone of	Protect someone against
Convince someone of	Quarrel with someone about something
Cure someone of	Prevent someone with something
Remind someone of	Share something with someone
Suspect someone of	Provide someone with
Arrest someone for	Spend something on
Blame someone for	Congratulate someone on
Forgive someone for	Divide / Cut / Split something into
Mistake someone for someone	Interest someone in something
Punish someone for something	Throw something to someone
Reward someone for something	Throw something at someone
Thank someone for	Buy something from someone
Borrow something from someone	Buy something for someone
Defend someone from something	Warn someone about something
Ban someone from	Warn someone against something
Save someone from	Warn someone of something
Translate from ... to...	Point / Aim something at someone
Explain something to someone
Invite someone to
Prefer something to something
Sentence someone to

Extra practice:

<https://www.grammar-test.englet.com/2018/10/verb-object-preposition.html>

Complete with the suitable preposition:

He was arrested vandalizing

The crowd threw eggs the corrupted politician

Please, remind me calling the painter for next week

If you don't have a calculator, you are allowed to borrow one a classmate.

Please, could you please explain this me again?

We'll divide the cake five equal pieces.