3. Read the following text and select the answer for the questions.

My aunt Martha lives in the countryside. She enjoys her home because it is quiet and calm. She also loves eating fresh food and milking the cows every morning. She can make cheese and delicious meals from the milk. However, her son Juan lives in the capital city, which is big and crowded. There are lots of cars and the air is not clean at all. When she visits her son, she feels sick and sad. She doesn't understand how people can live in those conditions and worries about her son.

a. What are the differences between Martha's home and her son's?
