

Identify the complete verb and the central verb in the subjects of these sentences.

1. My brother is working for Facebook.

complete verb:

central verb:

2. My mother does exercise every morning.

complete verb:

central verb:

3. The performance was a great success.

complete verb:

central verb:

4. I am a doctor.

complete verb:

central verb:

5. I was doing my homework when she came.

complete verb:

central verb:

6. It could have been better if you had functioned it in the right way.

complete verb:

central verb:

7. He has made the decision to solve the problem.

complete verb:

central verb:

8. Marie Curie is the woman that discovered radium.

complete verb:

central verb:

9. I'll be living in Sydney next winter.

complete verb:

central verb:

10. Lord Thompson, who is 76, has just retired.

complete verb:

central verb: