

Project 3, Unit 4 test, page 1

1. Put in the where necessary.

We stayed in a hotel near _____ river Thames. I think it's _____ tallest hotel in London. We were on _____ fifteenth floor, so we could see lots of famous palaces, like _____ Buckingham Palace and _____ Houses of Parliament.

2. Complete the dialogue with a, an or the.

Man Excuse me. Is there _____ hotel near here, please?

Woman Yes. Go along this street till you come to _____ bookshop on _____ corner. Turn left at _____ bookshop. There's _____ hotel in that street. It's on _____ left, between _____ café and _____ sports shop.

Man Thank you.

3. Choose the correct word.

I've got something/anything in my eyes.

I can hear voices. There's nobody/somebody in there.

I had a dream last night, but I can't remember anything/nothing.

I phoned Emma, but anybody/nobody answered.

Something/everybody is here so we can start.

Project 3, Unit 4 test, page 2

4. Complete the dialogue with these expressions.

are coming 'm playing What about Shall we I can't no good for me

A: _____ go swimming on Saturday?

B: No, _____. My cousins _____ for the weekend.
_____ Wednesday after school?

A: That's _____. I _____ football.

5. Read the story. Are the statements true or false?

Dreaming the future

Harry Smith had a strange dream last Thursday. It was Saturday and he was going to the cinema with his mother. Mrs Smith was wearing her new blue coat. While they were walking along the pavement, Harry's friend Edward cycled past. Then they met somebody his mother knew. A few minutes later, they walked under a ladder. The man on the ladder was painting the newsagent's window.

As they were walking past, the man suddenly dropped his tin and paint went all over Mrs Smith's coat. Then Harry woke up. When he told his mother about the dream, she laughed.

The next day, Harry and his mother decided to go to the cinema. Mrs Smith was wearing her blue coat. As they were walking along, they saw Edward on his bike and then they met Mrs Smith's friend. When Harry saw a man on a ladder, he pushed his mum into the newsagent's. He was sure the man was going to drop his tin of paint, because everything was the same as in his dream. But nothing happened! Mrs Smith laughed: 'You can't believe everything you dream.'

In Harry's dream, his mum was wearing a new blue coat. True False

In his dream a man dropped a tin of paint. True False

Harry didn't tell his mum about the dream. True False

Harry saw Edward and then they met his mum's friend. True False

The following Saturday, Harry and his mum went shopping. True False

Project 3, Unit 4 test, page 3

6. Use present continuous for future arrangements.

1. So, _____ your cousin _____ (arrive) this Saturday?
2. That's right. We _____ (meet) him at the airport at 10 o'clock.
Then we _____ (take) a ride around town so that he can see the sights.
1. _____ he _____ (stay) at your place?
2. Yes, he is. So in the afternoon, I _____ (introduce) him to my friends and then we _____ (play) volleyball together.
1. And what _____ you _____ (do) in the evening?
2. We _____ (have) a dinner party with the whole family.

6. Present continuous – forms.

-  I _____ shopping tomorrow. (go)
-  My mum _____ this evening. (not cook)
-  _____ your brothers _____ you with the housework in the afternoon? (help)
-  Amy _____ home this weekend. (come)
-  My parents _____ at home this evening. (not stay)
-  _____ your sister _____ to the cinema tonight? (go)

*