

SHORT ANIMATED FILM: DETECTIVE

1- VOCABULARY: Write the words under the correct object

KNIFE		BULLET		NEWSPAPER
SAUCEPAN	MOUSE
GUN	SPOT	PAN	SOUP	BUTCHER

2- VERBS: Complete the story with the verbs in the past.

The detective (be) in his apartment. He (be) _____ worried because he (can't) _____ find THE BUTCHER, a famous criminal.

He (hear) _____ a noise coming from the flat above and (imagine) _____ that The butcher was there attacking an old lady. So he (decide) _____ to investigate.

He (go) _____ to the old lady's flat a (see) _____ a red spot on the window. "The butcher (cut) _____ her into pieces with his big knife", he (think) _____. Once inside the house he (smell) _____ something cooking and he was sure the old lady was part of the soup. He (be) _____ scared to death but he (take) _____ his gun and (fire) _____.

Luckily, the bullet (hit) _____ a saucepan and (not kill) _____ the old lady who was so furious that she (throw) _____ a pan at his head. There (not be) _____ not criminal in the lady's house, it was all the detective's imagination.

3. Put the verbs from exercise 2 in the correct column

REGULAR VERBS	IRREGULAR VERBS

4. The detective had a great imagination. He thought some things were happening at the old lady's house but he was wrong.

Correct the sentences using the negative first and then provide the correct version

Example: There was a red blood spot on the newspaper.

NEGATIVE: There wasn't a red blood spot on the newspaper.

CORRECT: There was red tomato soup spot on the newspaper.

1) There was a criminal in the old lady's flat.

2) The criminal threw the tomato soup onto the floor..

3) The butcher cut the lady into pieces.

4) The butcher made soup with the lady

5) The bullet hit the butcher.
