Home sweet home! If you are reading this, it is because you were 20……. about how it would be to live alone. At some point, we all felt how necessary and important our house is. In fact, many who travel for work or studies away from home. It is 21…… to see how we humans miss our home, how we get 22……. being far . Of course it depends on culture. For Americans, for example, leaving home at age 18 is normal and 23…….They dream of living by themselves as young adults. It is said living alone is 24…….. , it is much more difficult than living with parents or an adult. In the end, we all want to have our own home and eventually this 25…… reality.
