

got on like a house on fire skeleton in the closet on the house
as safe as houses make yourself at home eating her out of house and home build castles in the air
everything but the kitchen sink

"I'm afraid we don't have any of your usual wine in stock at the moment. As you're one of our best customers, please accept a glass of this wine _____."

"I'm going out for a bit but _____. There's plenty of food in the fridge, just help yourself if you want anything."

"All three of Julie's kids are back from University for the summer. They're _____."

I've locked the doors. They're _____.

My neighbour and I _____ from the first time we met.

Most people have at least one _____.

You need sound financial advice and a strong plan if you're going to start your own business—don't just _____.

They took _____ when they went on holiday.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

On the House

MEANING

Food and drinks are free.

