BEES

If you work hard and have lots of things to do, people sometimes say that you're "busy as a bee". That's true because bees are one of the animal species which works the hardest. It takes a lot of bees to get all that work done – up to 60,000 bees can live in one colony. And they have 11.1. ____ tasks, too. Some care for the young bees and the queen, some guard the door, 11.2. ____ are construction workers. And, of course, there's a big group of bees that has to feed the whole colony. About 25 kilograms of honey are 11.3. ____ for the colony to survive winter. That's why one busy bee can visit even 2000 flowers a day.
