Yesterday, I found a website that gives advice about how we can help the wildlife in our gardens. Here are some of their tips and some dos and don'ts!

You can / can't put out food, but you don't have to / mustn't put out too much or the animals will start to rely on it and not hunt for them / themselves.

You can't / mustn't leave out junk food for them / themselves, like white bread or biscuits, because this is sometimes dangerous for their health. The best thing is to mix up nuts and seeds you / yourself, so that you know what's in it.

You don't have to / can't put out food all year because some animals, like birds, don't eat much in certain months. You don't have to / mustn't put bird feeders too close to windows or the birds might fly into the glass. And you have to / can try to put bird feeders where squirrels can't reach them! I think that is nearly impossible!

You can / can't leave food out for hedgehogs (nhím gai), but you don't have to / mustn't give them milk, because it's bad for them.

Finally, you must / can try to leave some old leaves or bits of wood around in the garden so that small animals, like insects, can find cover and be safe. Happy wildlife watching!

 - They _____ be in a hurry, because they have got more than enough time.
 - You _____ stop at the red light.

V. What would you say in these situations? Complete the sentences. Use the verbs in the box and reflexive pronouns (Bạn sẽ nói gì trong những tình huống này? Hoàn thành các câu sau sử dụng các động từ trong hộp và đại từ phản thân):
