Koala

Koalas are . This means that they are mammals that their young in a . They look like cute but koalas are not bears!

Koala mum with baby

Koalas live in along the eastern coastline of Australia. They are fragile animals but to 80 cm in height and weigh only about 14 kg. Baby koalas are called ' ' and in their mothers' pouch for the first . Koalas eat lots of (1 kg per day) and sleep up to 20 hours!

bears	Six months	Grow up	joeys	carry hide	Eucalypt forests	marsupials	pouch	Eucalyptus leaves

LIVEWORKSHEETS