I.EFL.4.11.1. Learners can understand main ideas and some details in short simple online or print texts on familiar subjects, using contextual clues to help identify the most relevant information. (Example: title, illustrations, organization, etc.) (I.2, I.4)

I.EFL.4.9.1. Learners can use simple language to describe, compare and state facts about familiar everyday topics such as possessions, classroom objects and routines in short, structured situations, interacting with relative ease. (I.3, I.4, S.4)

I.EFL.4.15.1. Learners can convey information and ideas and describe feelings and opinions in simple transactional or expository texts on familiar subjects in order to influence an audience, while recognizing that different texts have different features and showing the ability to use these features appropriately in one's own writing. (I.3, I.4, S.3, J.2)

I.EFL.4.22.1. Learners can collaborate and participate effectively in a variety of student groupings by employing a wide range of creative thinking skills through the completion of activities such as playing games, brainstorming and problem solving. (S.2, S.4, J.1, J.2, J.3, J.4)
